

No. 1165.

N O. 2, SEYMOUR TERRACE.
Apply to
DAVID SASSOON, SONS & Co.
Hongkong, 15th April, 1895. (47)

THE WELSH DISESTABLISHMENT BILL.
April 2nd.
In the House of Commons last night the Bill for Disestablishing and Disendowing the Welsh

With soldiers and gendarmes. The members of the Chinese Mission, including Mr. Foster and staff, are confined to a narrow strip in the center of the town. It is regrettable that such precautions

THE O. & O. S. Co.'s steamer Cottle, with mails, &c., which left Hongkong on March 20th.

Support in money is therefore earnestly requested. Every bank, firm and individual interested in the future prosperity of trade should contribute; and if ever one will give according to his means in relation to an object of such vast by the Colonial Secretary to compel them by law to find coolies during the strike. We have, therefore, had to content ourselves with bringing all this pressure we could privately on them to make them supply coolies which have been

